

“Jeremiah’s Song” Timeline

*Ellie’s parents died *Grandpa Jeremiah raised Ellie *Ellie went to college	*Ellie came home from college *Ellie didn’t appreciate Grandpa’s stories *Ellie didn’t sing in the choir *Ellie went back to college	*Grandpa had a stroke *Macon came over to help with chores	*Ellie came home from college again *Dr. Crawford gave Grandpa two weeks to live and gave him something for pain *Ellie questioned Dr. Crawford’s diagnosis *Macon came back from “a piece of a job” *Macon listened to Grandpa’s stories *Grandpa shared the story of “Old Carrie” *Dr. Crawford said Grandpa was doing a little better. Ellie complained about the stories. Dr. Crawford said telling the stories might be good medicine. *Ellie started liking Macon better. *Grandpa told the narrator about “the bridge.”	*Grandpa died *At the funeral <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ellie, the narrator, and others cried</li> <li>• Macon took charge</li> </ul> *At home, Ellie cried softly *Macon played a song *The narrator decided he could learn to play the song
Pre-story	First Summer	Fall	Second Summer	August